Dear Dick:

Dick Newman has asked me to get a copy of the Gettysburg Address manuscript reproduction and explanatory brochure that was prepared for the Illinois Pavilion. I understand you are considering using the Gettysburg Address in a display in connection with your Disneyland Great Moments show. I am also enclosing a copy of the specially printed Great Moments speech which we have in our press kit and VIP handout materials, in the hope it may be of some use to you.

Dick Newman also tells me that you would like some of the Lincoln portrait photos that can be used in a "aging sequence" for your Disneyland show. Dick is working with Ralph Newman's office to try and get his hands on those photos that are free and clear of any legal restrictions. As you may know, an Ohio historian, Lloyd Ostendorf, has published a book using all of the photographs and gave us permission to use them in our Photo Gallery. He and his publisher, University of Oklahoma Press, seem to think they have some special rights to some of the pictures, so I have suggested to Dick Newman that he avoid contacting them unless absolutely necessary. I feel there are enough Lincoln photos in the public domain to suit your purposes.

Please feel free to ask us for any other materials you may need to fill out your display area around your Lincoln show in Disneyland.

Best regards,

James A. Cassin
Executive Director
