MORE THAN 6 MILLION VISITORS MAKE ILLINOIS PAVILION
ONE OF THE FAIR'S MOST SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITS.

By the time the New York World's Fair closes its gates to the public for the last time this Sunday night, more than 6 million people will have visited the Illinois Pavilion to see the fantastic Disney audio-animatronic Lincoln.

Jim Cassin and his wonderful staff at the Pavilion deserve a special vote of contratulations on the efficiency, ingenuity and graciousness with which they handled their responsibilities and the proper dignity with which they represented the State of Illinois. We of WGN are most grateful to them for all of this and for the countless courtesies and service extended in our behalf.

Our special thanks go to Jim, Dick d'Anjou, Virginia Marmaduke, Loretta Hynes, Ann Kenny, Sarah Larson, and Mal Hoffmann.

Next Monday, Illinois will be the only Pavilion holding a "Survivor's Party". This will be both a happy and sad affair. First, there will be the great satisfaction of knowing that they have been an important part of one of the truly outstanding and successful Pavilions at the Fair, and second, there will be the parting tears of a terrific team that probably will never work together again.

From all of us at WGN to the great Illinois "Land of Lincoln" Pavilion staff - hearty contratulations on a job well done.
